General

The amendments to the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (2013 and 2020) provides that when applying for certain jobs and activities, certain convictions and cautions are considered 'protected'. This means that they do not need to be disclosed to employers, and if they are disclosed, employers cannot take them into account. Guidance about whether a conviction or caution should be disclosed can be found on the Ministry of Justice website. Please note any criminal convictions except those 'spent', or otherwise 'protected', under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974.

Equality Act 2010

Thurcroft Parish Council recognise the benefits of having a diverse workforce and therefore welcome applications from all sections of the community. In addition to this, under the provisions of the Equality Act 2010, Thurcroft Parish Council are required to demonstrate that their recruitment processes are fair and that they are not discriminating against or disadvantaging anyone because of their age, disability, gender reassignment status, marriage or civil partnership status, pregnancy or maternity, race, religion or belief, sex, or sexual orientation.
